Emmanuelle Michels is a highly impactful and business-savvy Executive Coach and Assessor.

She leverages her vast experience working at the most senior levels in Financial Services to diagnose business-impacting leadership issues for individual executives and top teams.

Overall, she has 10 years' experience coaching executives in both English and French. Her clients are based in Luxembourg, London, Geneva and Paris.

Her scope of intervention includes supranational bodies, government entities, financial services, consulting and law firms.

Before becoming a coach, Emmanuelle has had more than 20 years of management experience in financial services and consulting, ultimately as a partner of Russell Reynolds Associates where she has led their European Investment Management and Continental Executive Assessment activities. She has lived and worked in London for 15 years.

Emmanuelle graduated from the Ecole des Hautes Etudes Commerciales (HEC Paris), one of France's leading Grandes Ecoles. She is passionate about Coaching and trained herself comprehensively in this area. She is now based in Luxembourg where she focuses on Executive Coaching and Assessment.

Emmanuelle is appreciated by her clients for her strong business experience and her multi-cultural exposure, both contributing to quickly grasp the core of issues that her senior clients face. Her extensive coaching methodology helps her develop innovative and workable solutions hand-in-hand with her clients.

Furthermore, her ability to build unwavering trust and create a deeply respectful environment, combined with her constant focus on the objectives of the coaching and on her clients' best interests, makes coaching with Emmanuelle an enjoyable, high impact experience.
